The special technical equipment for the accuracy event will be supplied and operated by Mr. Gerd Weckbecker, Germany. The software for listing and ranking will be supplied and operated by Mr. Hans Huemer, Austria.

Accommodation and meals for all registered participants will be provided in 3 upper class hotels (SPORT-Hotel, Hotel TRAUBE and Hotel RIEZLER-HOF) in RIEZLERN. There are single (limited number), double and triple rooms as well as apartments for teams (only in SPORT-Hotel !). All rooms offered include breakfast and dinner. All hotels have sauna, bar and restaurant, the SPORT-HOTEL has also an indoor swimming pool. Due to small differences in comfort, quality and features of the hotels, there will be differences in the entry fee. The average fee is based on the Hotel RIEZLER HOF and is DM 850,- for each competitor. SPORT-Hotel residents pay DM 50,- less; residents of the Hotels TRAUBE have to pay DM 50,- more per person (in total for the stay).

The competition activities will take place near the station of the KANZELWAND cable car in the center of Riezlern (Accuracy target area). The ski races will take place at the top station of KANZELWAND. The qualification run and the giant slaloms will be carried out on the same course. Transportation to and between the hotels in Riezlern and to the competition venue is not necessary, because all sites are very close together and are within walking distance.

Shuttle Service (on request, extra fee):

The shuttle service to and from the railway station in Oberstdorf or Kempten is available only on 12th or 13th and 18th of March. Exact arrival time of train must be noted in the official entry form. From Munich International Airport there is a frequent railway connection to Oberstdorf and/or Kempten. For any other request, please contact the Organizing Committee.

Training facilities will be available for teams prior to the competition (ski slope: Monday and Tuesday, accuracy area and helicopter: only Tuesday). Pre-Arrangement for an accommodation package will be provided for competitors with earlier arrival, on request with the Organizing committee. Accuracy training is only possible for registered competitors on Tuesday, 13th, March 2001 from 10 a.m. to sunset.

First Aid will be provided by the organizer. Further care and/or medical treatment (evacuation, hospital, special treatments, surgery etc.) is at the expense of each delegation.

For information on immigration requirements please contact the German and Austrian Embassy of your country.

Each delegation may comprise of:

- 1 Head of Delegation
- 1 Member of Jury (if not Head of Delegation)
- 1 Team Manager
- 1 Ski Coach

3 Teams: Teams of mixed gender are allowed. This gives a maximum of 12 participants per nation with a maximum of 8 male and 4 female competitors!

Judges as approved by the IPC (as per IPC Rules for Para-Ski, paragraph 6.1.2)
(nomination should be done with Provisional Entry Form, latest until 15th December 2000)

Additional persons accompanying a delegation are by arrangement with the OC and have to be listed on the official entry form.

A minimum of 6 FAI-Judges will be selected as per IPC Rules for Para-Ski, paragraph 6.1.1
Decision will be done by IPC until January, 5th 2001 and nominated Judges will be announced in Bulletin No. 2.

Important Rules
Para-Ski World Championship 2001
RIEZLERN/Kleinwalsertal

1. Giant Slalom:

- 1.1 Two giant slalom runs will be carried out . There will also be a qualification run on the same course.
- 1.2 The starting order for the qualification run will be determined as follows:
 - a.) A group of maximum 15 competitors who attained the best skiing results at the last two World Championships Para-Ski and the last World Cup. The starting order in this group is determined by draw.
 - b.) Other competitors, with results in the same events as mentioned above, start in the sequence of their results. If two ore more competitors have the same result, they start in alphabetical order (name).
 - c.) All competitors, with no result as mentioned above, form the last group. The starting sequence of this group is determined by draw.
- 1.3 The starting order for the first competition run:
The first group of fifteen can choose a number between 1 and 15 in order of their ranking in the qualification run . All others will follow according to their ranking in the qualification run.
- 1.4 The starting order for the second run will be determined according to the FIS regulation art. 621.10
- 1.5 Women's ski race will be carried out on the same course as the men's. Women will have their own groups under the same rules as mentioned before. They will ski the course before the men's race.

2. Accuracy Event:

- 2.1 There will be no official training jumps. Nevertheless there is the possibility to do training jumps on Tuesday, March 13th (from 10.00 A.M to Sunset) before the official opening of the competition. These jumps are not included in the entry fee and cost DM 38,- each.
- 2.2 There is a minimum of 4 rounds.
- 2.3 To avoid damages at the measuring device and pad suitable footwear must be worn (at least 1,5 cm on the heel)
